Routing:

OfficerID: 1850, Narrative

On Sunday June 2nd, 2019 I was dispatched to 2 Marina Plaza in regards to an intoxicated male subject that was chartering a boat. The dispatch notes advised us that the captain was refusing to bring the passengers back to shore and had fired off rounds from a handgun.

Upon arriving on scene, I checked the docks for the mentioned vessel but it was determined that it was still on its way back to shore. A US Coast Guard Vessel was also in the area attempting to locate the boat. I then observed the vessel operating in the Sarasota Bay just Southwest of Marina Jacks. The boat was being steered/maneuvered by a subject on the upper level (later identified as Mark Bailey). Bailey backed his boat into the docks at the above address and upon the vessel being secured to the dock I made contact with him. Bailey was given verbal commands to come down the ladder of the boat in order for us to detain him for investigatory purposes and for passenger's safety since the allegation was made a firearm was discharged in their presence. Bailey exited the vessel with no further issue and secured in handcuffs by Officer J. Christie #1836.

While Bailey was detained and in the presence of Officers J. Christie and E. Urbain #1855 I spoke with multiple witnesses that were aboard the vessel with Bailey. I spoke with Devin Kissell who was the first mate. Kissell stated that he observed Bailey drinking an unknown number of beers while driving the boat. Kissell stated he was unsure how many beers Bailey had on the ride in. Kissell filled out a written statement about his observations while on the boat.

I then spoke with Carlo Lopepano who was a passenger on the vessel that Bailey was operating. Lopepano stated that he observed Bailey drinking multiple beers to the point of being intoxicated. Lopepano also stated that he observed Bailey getting high from cocaine. Lopepano gave me a written statement of his observations while on the boat.

I made contact with another passenger on the boat Jason H Rialmo. Rialmo also stated that Bailey got drunk during the boat trip. Rialmo also stated that Bailey got into an argument with another passenger on the boat. Shortly after the argument Rialmo stated he observed Bailey drinking more beer while operating the boat. Rialmo gave me a written statement in regards to what he observed.

I then spoke to another passenger on the boat, Jason Rialmo. Rialmo stated that he observed Bailey drinking Captain Morgan along with multiple different beers throughout the day. Rialmo stated he was unsure how many drinks he consumed during the day. Rialmo gave me a written statement of his observations while on the boat.

I then spoke with Christopher Giuffre, another passenger on the boat with Bailey. Giuffre stated he observed Bailey drinking rum from the bottle after an argument occurred on the boat with another passenger. Giuffre stated Bailey continued to drink rum and start using cocaine. Giuffre gave me a written statement of his observations of Bailey while on the boat.

United States Coast Guard Officers were on scene assisting in determining what crimes took place and the jurisdiction of each. It was determined that anything observed in Sarasota Police presence would be handled by myself and any allegations of criminal violations of law outside of our jurisdiction would be investigated by the US Coast Guard. I returned to the area where Bailey was detained by officers to observe him again. Bailey presented with watery bloodshot eyes and slurred speech at times. Bailey was seated but upon standing up to be escorted to a nearby cruiser he appeared unsteady on his feet. During all times of interaction with myself and other officers a strong odor of alcoholic beverage was emanating from his person. Upon speaking with him at any length it was determined the odor of alcoholic beverage was coming from Bailey's breath.

Ronald Gleason (Chief Warrant Officer/Investigator) who was on scene offered Bailey to complete field sobriety exercises, but Bailey refused. Gleason directed Bailey to submit to a breathalyzer at the jail and Bailey refused that as well. US Coast Guard Officers read Bailey their refusal paperwork. After Bailey asked to speak with Gleason another time he agreed to consent to the breathalyzer at the jail.

Bailey was subsequently advised he was under arrest for suspicious of boating while under the influence and was being transported to the Sarasota County Jail. Bailey again demanded to speak with a supervisor on scene and kicked the rear patrol door of Sarasota Police Cruiser #185 while handcuffed inside. Officer Urbain opened the rear door to ensure Bailey was OK at which time Bailey smiled and laughed. Upon attempting to resecure Bailey inside the vehicle Bailey placed his hands in the rear window of the cruiser, preventing it from being closed. Bailey was ordered two times by Officer Urbain to remove his hands and comply with lawful orders to cooperate and be secured. Bailey refused this order but upon a third order while other officers were approaching to assist Bailey finally complied.

Bailey was transported without incident and once at the jail was placed under observation prior to a breathalyzer at 0352 hours. Bailey was taken back by Sarasota County Deputies to perform the breath test, but he refused once the information was entered into the machine.

Bailey was charged with Boating Under the Influence as well as Resisting Without Violence and transferred into the custody of jail deputies. The probable cause for Boating under the influence was my observations of watery bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, being unsteady on his feet as well as the odor of alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. Bailey was observed operating a vessel in the jurisdictional waters of the Sarasota Bay by your affiant.

Probable cause for the resisting without violence charge is as follows: Bailey was lawfully detained and being placed under arrest when he resisted and obstructed being secured into a police cruiser and kicked said door of police cruiser.

All of the above facts took place in my presence and within my jurisdiction of the City of Sarasota, Florida.

End of Report.

We booked a 12 hour fishing trip Captain Mark got drunk he was High on Cocaine he got mad at my 15 year old nephew and ripped his chain off his neck and threatened to shoot everyone in head about a hour or so later there was 7 or 8 shots fired from above! We was suppose to be back by 7pm and repeatedly asked to go home for 6 hours we drove in circles. Once we got in Cell Range we were able to call for help the first mate was sleeping at cad and tried to brake up intial problem with my nephew. We were def all in fear for our lives.

- WE WENT THROUGH A QUICK SAFETY BRIEFING AND THEN HEADED OUT INTO THE GULF
- WE DROVE OUT TO CATCH BAIT FISH AND THE CAPTAIN LOADED UP A PAIR OF BEER AND A 24oz CAPTAIN MORGAN Rum in a pail and brought it up to his perch
- we headed out to some fishing spots and tried to catch Red Snapper. We finished out around 1:45
- we went further into the Gulf around 60 miles out and during the journey, one of the passengers asked Jay to climb the stairs to where the CAPTAIN WAS AND ASKED HIM TO PASS HIM A BEER THAT WAS IN the plastic bucket beside the captain. The captain told him to put the beer back and get off the second deck. The lad thought he was kidding and proceeded to retrieve the beer to Carlo

The captain bumped shoulders with the young man and grabbed him around the neck and clasped on to the young man's chain and ripped it off.

The young man's uncle was very upset about the assault and began yelling and screaming at the Captain and the first mate. An argument ensued and we tried to de-escalate the situation. The young man's uncle was "CARLO" and he was the one who arranged the charter and had paid the Captain. The uncle "Carlo" did not want to speak with the Captain and wanted to go in the cabin to cool off. The Captain insisted on following him and my son CHRIS JR and myself intervened as asked him to leave him alone.

The Captain was angry but agreed but he tried to push past my son who held his ground and they exchange words with the Captain insisting it was his vessel and he can do what he wants.

In any event the situation de-escalated. The captain went up to the second level and began drinking heavily and doing recreational drugs.

The young man (Jay) saw him smoking a joint and Jason (the boys father) saw him doing cocaine.

The Captain called my son up to the second level to chat with him and once again they argued and the captain said "I have a gun and if I want I will put a bullet in each of your heads and leave you out here. My son (Chris) was extremely upset.

The situation once again calmed down and we drove out another 10-15 miles to fish but

But at this time the mood on the boat was awful and I told the captain's first mate (Devon) to return back to shore at 2:45 pm.

On our way back, the Captain was drinking rum from the bottle and then retrieved his gun and fired 6-7 shots, scaring the crap out of all of us.

We tried to fish a little more but really wanted to head back in.

From 6:00 pm to 1:00 the Captain continued to drink rum and do cocaine, pretending to go into shore BUT WAS JUST CIRCLING WHICH WE ADDRESSED WITH FIRST MATE BECAUSE WE HAD A COMPASS on our phones and watched what he was doing. I became very unsettled and the situation became very sketchy. We had no control and no way to get back. I believe he didn't want to dock completely wasted and was buying time.

Jason asked him to please head in and he said "no I can do this as long as I want, I do this for a living" He then went on to say that he will have some of his friends waiting at the dock for us if we continue to give him a hard time.

As soon as we got within cell range we contact authorities (my son CHRIS had coast guard on the phone & Carlo called into SPD)

We went out, the captain drank a lot, tried fighting me. While we were in the cabin, captain was upstairs and let off a number of shots from his gun. He kept doing circles and refused to bring us in until we paid him. Captain was drinking on captain Morgan, he had had many beers throughout the day - corona's, Bud-light and michelob's. What started the fight was when captain ~~he~~ ripped my chain off my ~~my~~ neck.

THE CAPTAIN GOT DRUNK AND GOT INTO AN ARGUMENT WITH MY BROTHER (CARLO A. LOPEZ) ABOUT MY SON (JASON H. REALMO II) BECAUSE THE CAPTAIN REPPED THE CHAIN OFF OF MY SONS NECK. AFTER THAT THE CAPTAIN DRANK MORE AND GOT POSED ABOUT THE EARLIER ARGUMENT AND KEPT TAKING US IN CIRCLES. AT ONE POINT HE FIRED A GUN FROM THE TOP DECK. WHEN HE SAID HE WAS TAKING US IN IT WAS ROUGHLY 6:30 PM. WE MADE IT BACK TO THE MARINA AT 1:00 AM. AT ONE POINT I WENT TO THE TOP DECK TO FIND OUT WHAT WAS GOING ON AND HE STATED IT WOULDN'T BE SHIT TO POP A BULLET IN EACH ONE OF US AND DUMP US OVER BOARD. HE ALSO STATED HE HAD HIS BUDDIES AT THE DECK FOR US WHEN WE GET BACK. HE THEN PROCEEDED TO SAY HE WANTED MY HELP TO KILL NEGERS. HE WAS TRASHED ON ALCOHOL AND PROBABLY SOMETHING ELSE. THE FIRST MATE (DEVIN) HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THIS.

THE CAPTAIN WAS DRINKING BEER AND CAPTAIN MORGAN RUM. I BELIEVE HE FIRED FOUR SHOTS FROM HIS PISTOL. I DID FEEL THREATENED WHEN HE SAID IT WOULDN'T BE NOTHING TO POP A BULLET IN EACH ONE OF US AND DUMP OUR BODIES OVER BOARD. AND I ALSO FELT THREATENED WHEN HE WOULDN'T TAKE US BACK TO THE MARINA. AT ONE POINT IN OUR CONVERSATION HE WANTED ME TO APOLOGIZE OR HE SAID WE CAN HEAD SOUTH ALL NIGHT.

Capt. started off fine. Couple hours in starting getting an aggressive attitude. Said that 15 yr old friend of mine on the boat bumped him. He proceeded to push Junior (15yr) and ripped his chain from his neck. We all pushed him away after and told him he was 13yr. Junior went into the cabin and I blocked the Capt from trying to get in. things calmed down for about 20 minutes. Then the Capt. asked me to come up to and talk. He said "Don't come at me on my own boat", "You think you're a tough guy?" Then said "I have a 9mm and I could pop all you mother fuckers". Then said to "get the fuck off his deck". I stayed in the cabin for the rest of the charter. This was around 7pm we got back at 1am. After that happened about 15 minutes passed and the Capt. pulled his gun and shot 5-6 shots in the air. I dove on the ground and crawled into the cabin from just outside the door. Then we kept asking to go in cause we were done. This was at 9:30pm. He drove us within 10 miles of shore and proceeded to drive North and South
